

IRON WARS / OUTLAW IRON®

Iron Wars is a reality show that will feature three of the top metal removers and haulers in the State of Nebraska.

Show Setup:

It all started with just one company and one big happy family, that did not last long. Eventually some of the people went their own way and started new companies that are in direct competition with each other. It has become family versus family and friend versus friend in this high-stakes risky business of metal scrapping and hauling. It's a high-stakes business as overloaded trucks can equal heavy fines and dealing with heavy metal is extremely dangerous work.

Crew A

Crew A is the largest of the three groups. This includes Russ, Rutt, Catfish, Dale, Kipp, and Robert. Most of the guys are former felons. This crew like the others will go to extremes to get the job done.

Crew B

Crew B was formed from Crew A, including Russ's daughter Tasha, and her boyfriend Josh. Their main employee is Matt, who is extremely loyal to Josh. Josh used to work for Russ until he left to start his own business.

Crew C

Crew C was formed when Zack left Josh's company and formed his own company. The trio also includes the sexy Leanna and tough-guy worker Derek. They are the newest of the three groups.
